Munsing Union Suits FOR LADIES

We take considerable pleasure in calling attention to our complete stock of Munsing Union Suits for ladies. We consider ourselves very fortunate in securing the exclusive agency for these excellent garments. While it is generally known that they are very high class, it is not known by everybody that the prices are as low as ordinary makes of underwear are sold for. We can convince you.

MONEY! MONEY!

Do You Want a Bargain in Town Property?

I have three properties that are bargains and I am going to sell them at a bargain to some one who has a few hundred dollars laying idle.

I want to build a good building for a printing office and will sell property cheap, to carry out my plans.

Come and see me on any kind of a property deal. I want money and I'll give big value for it.

Wedding Bells.

At eight o'clock on Tuesday morning of this week, a pretty wedding took place at St. Nicholas church, when Rev. Father Blaere united in marriage Mr. Thomas P. Jordan and Miss Catherine Hilley.

Mr. M. P. Jordan, a brother of the groom was best man and Miss Lillian Mary San Souci, a cousin of the bride, acted as bridesmaid.

The ceremony was witnessed by a large assembly of relatives and friends.

At one o'clock the newly married couple, with their friends and relatives, repaired to the home of the groom's father where an elaborate wedding dinner was served. The day was spent in congratulations, and many beautiful presents were presented to Mr. and Mrs. Jordan.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Jordan of this city, and a young man of sterling qualities. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Susanna Hilley of Arabia, and is a lady of rare accomplishment.

The young couple, who left on a little wedding tour to the Black Hills, intend to make Arabia their future home.

Their many friends avail themselves of this opportunity to offer this worthy couple all sorts of matrimonial bliss.

Obituary.

Mrs. Margaret White was born in Wigan, Lancashire, England, Aug. 26, 1858, and died May 11, 1912, at the St. Joseph hospital, Omaha, Nebr., after an illness of three weeks. She was operated on for gall stones a week prior to her death.

The deceased leaves to mourn her death four daughters and five sons and one sister, Mary A. Smith of this city, Mrs. M. Christensen and Miss Helen of this city, Miss Margaret and Catherine of Sheridan, Wyo., William E. of Crookston, Francis, John, Leo and Thomas at home. All were present during her burial.

She was a good and loving mother and sister, a good and faithful neighbor, loved by all who knew her.

The remains were laid to rest in the Crookston cemetery May 13, 1912, beside her husband. The funeral services were held in the Catholic church of this city, Rev. Father Blaere officiating.

Margaret McGuan was united in marriage to Bartholomew White Nov. 13, 1879, at Rock Island, Ill. To this union was born 14 children. Five children are dead and nine are living.

TO OUR MOTHER:

The silver cord is snapped asunder And one life is done; Gone to dwell with God, the Father, And wear the crown that she has won.

Weep not children, weep not sister, Though we'll miss her day by day; She is free from pain and sorrow In that brighter land always.

Though one chair is vacant and can never be refilled, Let us strive to do our duty and gain a home in Heaven.

GOOD SUPPLY OF HOGS—10c UP

Fair Run of Sheep and Lambs—Prices for Lambs Ruled Lower—Ewes and Wethers Selling on a Steady Basis.

Union Stock Yards, South Omaha, May 14.—A very moderate supply of cattle was received today, about 3,000 head. Fat cattle were 15¢ to 25¢ higher than at the close of last week. Some choice 1,430-pound beeves sold for $8.65, the highest price ever paid here for a full load of cattle. Cows and heifers are selling at stronger figures and fat heifer stock, as well as good heavy cows, sold about as well as at any time lately. The market for veal calves is quotably strong. There was a satisfactory outlet and market for bulls, stags and rough stock generally. Inquiry for stock cows and heifers is apparently as vigorous as ever and offerings of this description find a ready sale.

Quotations on cattle: Choice to prime beeves, $8.25@8.75; good to choice beeves, $7.85@8.25; fair to good beeves, $7.25@7.75; common to fair beeves, $6.50@7.25; good to choice heifers, $6.75@7.75; good to choice cows, $5.75@6.75; fair to good grades, $5.25@5.75; canners and cutters, $3.00@5.00; veal calves, $4.00@7.75; bulls, stags, etc., $4.50@6.75; choice to prime feeders, $6.75@7.25; good to choice feeders, $5.80@6.50; fair to good feeders, $5.25@5.75; common to fair feeders, $4.25@5.00; stock cows and heifers, $4.00@5.25.

About 12,800 head of hogs arrived today and prices were mostly 10¢ higher. Best heavy hogs on sale brought 27.70, as compared with Monday's top of $7.60, while most sales were fairly well bunched within $7.45@7.60, as against last Tuesday's bulk of $7.40@7.60.

Receipts of sheep and lambs amounted to about 4,000 head. Lambs were uneven and slow at declines, ranging from 10¢ to 25¢. Ewes and wethers were relatively scarce and held up fairly well. Best woolled lambs sold at $9.50. Some extra shorn ewes brought $6.50; Shorn wethers also landed at $6.50.

Quotations on sheep and lambs—Woolled. Lambs, good to choice, $9.00@9.50; lambs, fair to good, $8.25@9.00; ewes, good to choice, $7.00@7.30; ewes, fair to good, $6.50@7.00. Shorn: Lambs, good to choice, $8.40@8.65; lambs, fair to good, $7.75@8.40; yearlings, $6.65@7.25; wethers, $5.85@6.65; ewes, $5.25@6.50.

Card of Thanks.

A Country of Homes

Did you ever give thought to the fact that it is largely due to the material aid and encouragement given by banks and bankers that this is a country of homes and home owners?

Do you realize that this aid and encouragement, which has been such a help in making improvements and advancing property values, was possible only because many people deposited in banks their surplus money, the money for which they had no immediate use?

Individually these accounts were small, collectively they stand for the world's progress.
